Catholic Business Person of the Year

Michael P. Fitzgerald

Mr. Fitzgerald is Chairman, President and CEO of Bank of Georgetown which he co-founded with Curtin Winsor III in 2005.

Bank of Georgetown has over $1 billion in assets, 11 branches and 115 employees in DC, MD and VA. The bank consistently earns the highest level five-star rating from BauerFinancial.

Mr. Fitzgerald's earlier career includes senior vice president of SequoiaBank (8 years), and Riggs Bank (15 years) where he was named president and CEO of The Riggs National Bank of Maryland at the age of 35.

Mr. Fitzgerald's many awards and recognitions include twice being a finalist for the Ernst and Young Entrepreneur of the Year award as well as receiving Washington Business Journal's "Most Admired CEO" in Banking and Finance.

Mr. Fitzgerald currently serves on the boards of The Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta, Marymount University, Providence Hospital and The Friendly Sons of St. Patrick-Washington.

Mr. Fitzgerald previously served on the boards of SOAR! (Support Our Aging Religious - Treasurer), CBN-MD (President), Leadership Montgomery and the Bethesda-Chevy Chase and Silver Spring Chambers of Commerce. He chaired the Catholic Charities Golf Tournament for 5 years and was involved with Providence Hospital's Grand Rounds for Community Leaders.

Mr. Fitzgerald is a graduate of Georgetown Preparatory School (1975), Fairfield University (class of 1979, B.A., Economics), and Loyola College (1981, MBA). He and his wife, Eileen, have two daughters.

Clergy of the Year

Monsignor W. Ronald Jameson

Rev. Msgr. Jameson, Rector of Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle since 1995, is a graduate of St. Mary's Seminary and the Theological College of Catholic University. He was ordained in St. Matthew's Cathedral on May 18, 1968, by Cardinal O'Boyle and his first two assignments were in Maryland parishes, and then St. Matthew's from 1974 to 1985.

Prior to becoming Rector, Msgr. Jameson was the Director of Liturgy for the Archdiocese of Washington. In 1985, he was named pastor of Holy Redeemer Parish, and in 1992 he became Cardinal Hickey's Secretary for Parish Life and Worship. He was named a Prelate of Honor with the title Monsignor in 1995. Msgr. Jameson has devoted time and leadership on the Priests' Personnel Board, Catholic Charities' Board of Directors, and Chair of the Council of Priests. He was Coordinator of the liturgies celebrated by Pope John Paul II in 1979. He is a member of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre and is a Magistral Chaplain of the Order of Malta

Msgr. Jameson's legacy to St. Matthew's will undoubtedly be his enduring interest in building community in the parish, establishing a parish archive, the restoration of the Cathedral, and the construction of the office building adjacent to the Cathedral.
